

IT OUGHT TO BE EASY

TO SELECT

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS from our full store. Our line was never so large and beautiful as this year. If you have not seen anything to suit you, it is your fault, for you have not visited our store. Come in to-day and take a look at our stock. Our prices are reasonable, and will, doubtless, suit you.

The Lawrenceburg Drug Company,

In our write-up of the Otis case, last week, by some means the name of Judge Barker was substituted for that of Judge Thos. R. Gordon. We do not wish to apologize for such an inexcusable mistake, but we do wish to state that all of the good things said of Judge Barker were intended for Judge Gordon, who made many friends among us by the manly and vigorous fight he made for his client in the trial of that case, and it is unnecessary for us to say that none of them have a warmer feeling for the genial judge than have we.

A large Laundry Basket would be a nice present for any housewife.

BE CAREFUL

about the kind of Whiskey you send your friend Christmas. He may be

A Good Judge of Whiskey,

and, such being the case, we are more anxious than ever to fill the order for you, for he can appreciate the quality of our goods.

R. C. Renfro,
Harrodsburg, Ky.

WANTED—Situation, as house-keeper, by a respectable middle-aged widow. A good cook for a small family or a widower. Address, Mrs. BERTHA LONG, General Delivery, Columbus, Ohio.

We received the above, last week, through the mail, and, although Mrs. Long failed to enclose the price of the ad., we "run" it, judging that at the writing Long was short. That "Want" ads. in IT pay is evidenced by the people of other States sending us their business.

Finest hacks, horses and harness in Central Kentucky at Morgan & Hyatt's.

The most beautiful line of Medallions ever shown in the city at Ballard's.

Xmas Cards at Shouse's.

Hand-made Breeching at Law, Buggy & Imp. Co.

A most attractive line of Holiday Goods just opened at Lawrenceburg Drug Co.

Give the lady one of our Chairs. Bond & Leathers.

Our attention has been called to the fact that, in our enumeration of the industries of this city, we omitted all mention of the coal yards and lumber business, and we now desire to say that Lawrenceburg has three of the most gentlemanly and enterprising coal dealers to be found anywhere within the borders of this or any other State, and that when it comes to lumber of any kind, if you can't find what you want at Thurman's, you need not look for it elsewhere.

Stylish and serviceable shoes at Waterfill Bros.

Sold Fine Brood Mare.

Mr. J. M. Johnson sold, last week, to W. B. Griffin, of Albia, Iowa, the great brood mare Hecla, by Strathmore, and dam of three in the 2:30 list.

Mr. R. S. Collins, last week, shipped to Louisville two carloads of hogs, and, while in the city placing them on the market, bought and shipped here a car-load of cattle, to be fed on slop.

Messrs. Speer & Mountjoy, last Friday, sold to Mr. T. E. Houchin, of Chaplin, a four-year-old walk-trot mare for $350.00, and bought of Owen Wash a fine three-year-old gelding for $125.00.

Toys from the cheapest to the best at Cox's Grocery.

Fresh Bread and Cakes every day at Warren Bros'.

Bargains in Wall Paper at Bond & Leathers'.
